

Decision No. 36

Christine A. Fairbairn,
Applicant

v.

International Bank for Reconstruction and Development,
Respondent

1. The World Bank Administrative Tribunal, composed of E. Jiménez de Aréchaga, President, P. Weil, and A.K. Abul-Magd, Vice Presidents, and R.A. Gorman, E. Lauterpacht, C.D. Onyeama and Tun M. Suffian, Members, has been seized of an application, received January 12, 1987, by Christine A. Fairbairn against the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.

2. The Applicant requested the Tribunal to quash the decision of the Respondent to downgrade her to the new grade 16 from a higher grade which she held in her last regular position and to order that she be placed in a suitable position at grade 18 within the next six months.

3. On February 13, 1987, the Applicant informed the Tribunal that she had entered into a mutually agreed separation agreement dated January 20, 1987, with the Respondent and, therefore, was withdrawing her application filed with the Tribunal.

4. On February 17, 1987, the Respondent informed the Tribunal that it had no objections to the withdrawal of the application.

Decision

Considering that the application is withdrawn, the Tribunal unanimously decides to record the withdrawal of the application.
