

Leonid Vanian,
Applicant

v.

International Bank for Reconstruction and Development,
Respondent

Order No. 2002-19

1. The World Bank Administrative Tribunal received on August 13, 2002 an application from Leonid Vanian against the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development. The Executive Secretary of the Tribunal, however, agreed at the request of the Applicant to postpone the transmittal of the application to the Respondent in view of an ongoing mediation process between the parties.

2. By an e-mail to the Tribunal dated September 25, 2002, the Applicant requested the withdrawal of his application due to the successful outcome of mediation.

Decision

The President of the Tribunal decides to record the withdrawal of the application.
